

“Prior to entering Dunklin, I spent the past 18 years in addiction to anything that made me feel good. I was raised in a good home with loving parents. I accepted Christ at a young age and had every opportunity to live a healthy and successful life; however, something inside me changed and I began to rebel. I eventually reached a point where I had to have drugs in order to function, pushing everyone away from me. It was here at Dunklin that I was rescued and learned to have an intimate relationship with Christ. I am forever grateful that God saw fit to spare me.” - Danny Case

“I come from a 13 year addiction to cocaine and alcohol. Due to my selfishness, I almost lost my wife and two sons. I abandoned them for another relationship, and in May of 2017 devised a plan to leave the country for good. Fortunately, God intervened and brought me to Dunklin. Since being here, my marriage and the relationship with my sons has been restored. At first I did not believe that I was going to have a relationship with God. I have not only built a relationship with Him, but I also have fallen in love with Him.” - Dalton del Campo

“Before Dunklin I was lost, broken, and wanted to end my life. I come from a 30 year addiction to drugs and alcohol. I spent those years running from the Lord, destroying my marriage and my relationship with my daughters. After finding the Lord here and accepting Him into my life, my relationships have been restored. I am no longer in self pity, and I look forward to a life with Christ at the center of it. I am forever grateful for Dunklin and the staff leading me to the Lord.” - Stephen Heath

“I have been in addiction for 8 years and limped to Dunklin, knocking on death’s door. I found out my fiance was pregnant while I was on my way to Dunklin the first time. I used that as an excuse to leave and go back to commercial fishing to earn money and prepare for his birth. I lasted 5 days before I called back begging for another chance to come to Dunklin, because I had gone back to using. The Lord has restored my relationship with my fiancé, Jordan, and my son, Woods. I am a blessed man today and I can’t wait to see what the Lord has in store for my family and me.” - Quinton Grimm

“I pushed my family out of my life before coming to Dunklin, because of the way I was living. They had accepted the fact that I was going to die in my addiction. I was hopeless, but the Lord had different plans for my life. He brought me to Dunklin and restored my family and gave me hope. Today, I have purpose in my life. I am forever grateful for the call the Lord has on my life.” - Cody Glenn

“ I was born and raised in South Africa. My family imparted Christian principles into my life growing up, however, at the age of 18, I turned my back on God in pursuit of pleasure. This ended in a full blown cocaine addiction. This is my second time here at Dunklin. The first time, I left without graduating. Today, my life has purpose, and I have a relationship with God, which has changed everything. I am grateful for my new life and the opportunity to share with others what God has done. ”

- Jason Wentzel

“ I had a radical encounter with Christ in prison and chose to follow him on my own terms upon release. This led me to fall right back into addiction and prison, abandoning my wife and daughter. Then, I was released again and tried to rebuild my family and relationship with God. It wasn't until I came to Dunklin that I was able to learn that I am forgiven, and that I can hear from Him clearly. Now I can place my trust in Him and the people he puts in my life. ”

- Jerry Dawell

“ I started using drugs at 17 years old, and by the age of 21, my life steadily went downhill because of my addiction. I was arrested 11 times, my health was getting worse, and I pushed all of my loved ones in my life away. I came to Dunklin because I had no other options; I was at my worst. I had become homeless and hopeless. Since my arrival here, the Lord has restored me to health, renewed my mind, and given me freedom. God has placed a calling on my life to tell others what He has done for me. Upon graduating, I will be headed to Orlando to share my testimony. ”

- Aaron Richardson

“ Before the Lord apprehended me out of a 20 year addiction, I was fueled by hate, rage, and misery. Coming to Dunklin, I was able to submit to this process and the Lord's will. I walk in freedom today. I have a purpose to serve the Lord, and I have hope for a beautiful future. I now have a peace that I have never had before. I also have joy knowing that I have a calling to go to seminary school and serve others through ministry. ”

- Jeremy Strutz

“ I am grateful for God apprehending me and delivering me to Dunklin, where I invited Him into my heart. Through a 35 year struggle in addiction, seeking to fill an emptiness, I fell further into darkness and despair. Through God's grace, I now have peace and faith. I will now walk in His love and light, and be the father, brother, and son He desires me to be. All this is possible through the love He has for me. ”
