

“ Prior to entering Dunklin, I spent the past two decades consumed in addiction. During this time, I manipulated, lied, and stole from everyone in my life, especially those closest to me. Upon my arrival into the program I had destroyed everything, including my 10-year marriage. While being here I experienced the presence of God in a real way, repentance filled my heart, and relationships that I had severed have been restored by His grace. Because of Christ, my marriage, now, has never been better!” - Michael Hopkins

“ I came to Dunklin having no idea what to expect. Deep down I knew that I needed a complete change, I just didn't know how this was possible. I was stuck in a faulty belief system. The Lord intervened in my thinking and what I once thought impossible, became real and possible. At the outset, I could not see my marriage or the relationship with my son being pieced back together; I was devastated. Today, I have something special with my wife and son and it has all been made possible through my personal relationship with Jesus Christ.”

“ I had periods of sobriety during my addiction, but I always ended up in a worse spot than I was before; the destruction became deeper and more devastating. Eventually, my choices led me down a path where I abandoned my family to pursue my own selfishness. I did not care if I lived or died, but the Lord intervened, rescued me from myself, and delivered me to Dunklin. Since being here, He has begun the process of healing my marriage and my relationship with my 4 children. Through His grace and love He has restored my soul and everything meaningful in my life.” - David Murgall

“ I pursued the temporary “feel good” of drugs and alcohol, but I was always left empty and broken. I destroyed everything that was good in my life and I isolated myself from my family. Since being at Dunklin, God has restored my faith and my relationships with my family. He has breathed life, peace, and joy into my heart. I now wake up each day with hope and a purpose that resonates through me. I have searched for this place within my entire life. I am now rich in Him.” - Frank Cimino

“ In my addiction I found myself doing things to loved ones that are inconceivable. I took advantage of people and situations, resorting to lying and stealing from those closest to me in order to support my drug use. In the end, I had no hope or positive outlook on life whatsoever. I looked around and all I could see was “death” and hopelessness. My passion to experience life in a great way came to a point of nonexistence. I dreaded who I became and the life that I was leading. Since being here, the Lord has restored my family, gave me life, and breathed a new purpose into my being.” - Shia Elridge

“ It is by grace that I am here today after 7 years of addiction and self-destruction. God brought me to my knees after a crisis in my life. He delivered me to Dunklin and here I have learned little by little the process of being obedient to Him. In this short time, I have learned so much about Jesus Christ, myself, and my new purpose in the Kingdom. I am excited about what He has in store for me and cannot wait to pursue Him from here on out.” - Bryan Furman

“ Before coming to Dunklin I had lost everything, including my family and purpose in life to my addiction. It wasn’t long upon my arrival here at Dunklin that I was introduced to a new, intimate relationship with Jesus Christ. Prior to my salvation, I was utterly hopeless. Anything meaningful that I had at one time was destroyed and lost, even my relationship with my children. Now, because of what has transpired, I am now an integral part of my kid’s lives. I am extremely grateful for what the Lord has done and is continuing to do in my life.”

- Anthony Diddlen

“By God’s grace I have been apprehended from a 14-year addiction to anything that gave me an escape from reality. I pursued whatever substance that made me feel good. Looking back, I am in dismay to fully realize the depths that I resorted to. I broke all ties to anyone and anything meaningful and was on a fast road to death. God intervened, shed His grace upon me, saved my life, and set my feet on a new path. Today, I am proud to be His son, a disciple of Christ, with a calling on my life to share the good news with others.”
